

Master in Esthetic Dentistry, MSc

Degree:	Master of Science (MSc)
Format:	Part-Time, requires 3 travels for 10 days each
Target Audience:	The Master in Esthetic Dentistry is a challenging program for dentists who want to take their expertise to the next level. It aims to qualify students for demanding synoptic treatment options by enhancing their methodological and manual skills and increasing their awareness for the importance of objective evaluation of esthetic cases.
Highlights:	Non-Sponsored Program Scientific Approach Multidisciplinary Unbiased Integrated Human Cadaver Course
Requirements:	Academic University Degree License entitling you to practice dentistry 2 years of professional experience English Language Skills on B2 Level
Duration:	2 years (4 Semesters)
Credits:	90
Language:	English
Location:	Goethe-University Frankfurt am Main, Germany
Tuition Fee:	35.000 EUR

Modules

- Esthetics – Science and Daily Practice
- Esthetics – Needs and Medical Indications
- Patient Documentation
- Patient Treatment Cases
- Specific Esthetic Potentials of Dental Disciplines
- Digital Planning
- Patient Handling – Psychological Aspects
- Scientific Methods I
- Scientific Methods II
- Extended Potentials of Synoptic Treatment Regimes
- Coordination of Therapeutic Teams
- Practice Management
- Surgical Techniques – Human Cadaver Course
- Master Thesis