

Master in Oral Implantology, MSc

Degree:	Master of Science (MSc)
Format:	Part-Time, requires 4 travels for 10 days each
Target Audience:	The Master in Oral Implantology is designed for fully employed dentists who are interested in pursuing advanced academic training in the field of Oral Implantology. Graduates will be able to independently plan and implement therapy concepts for the treatment of patients requiring dental implants and have the skills to intergrate those treatments into their daily practice.
Highlights:	Non-Sponsored Program Scientific Approach International Unbiased Integrated Human Cadaver Course
Requirements:	Academic University Degree License entitling you to practice dentistry 2 years of professional experience English Language Skills on B2 Level
Duration:	2 years (4 Semesters)
Credits:	90
Language:	English
Location:	Goethe-University Frankfurt am Main, Germany
Tuition Fee:	32.000 EUR

Modules

Presence Modules:

- Basic Theory I
- Basic Theory II
- Surgical Techniques
- Implant Prosthetics

Distance Modules:

- Hospitation
- Supervision
- Patient Treatment Cases
- Master Thesis

+49 69 6301 4738

www.goethe-dental-school.de